

Annual Programme

The programme of excavations, lectures, and excursions runs throughout the year.

EXCAVATIONS: Members participate in field-walking, geo-physical surveys, site planning, excavating, finds processing, etc. Currently our Field Unit is working at Rocky Clump, Stanmer. Join the "diggers" for active archaeological research, training is given!

LECTURES: During the winter, illustrated lectures are given by specialists on a wide range of archaeological and historical subjects, with particular interest on local and regional topics. Lectures are held centrally in Brighton.

EXCURSIONS: Coach excursions take place during Summer months.

LOCAL HISTORY FORUM: Holds seminars, and arranges walkabouts, on topics of local interest.

PUBLICATIONS: The Society's newsletter "FLINT" appears half-yearly, with Reports and Accounts published annually.

EMAIL UPDATES: Twice a week updates are sent out by email. Monday's reports on the weekends activities and Thursday's lets you know what is happening the following weekend.
